Summary: $44^{\circ}43'22.8''N$ $123^{\circ}54'39.7''W$ is a photo book that creates a new connection between myself and my grandfather. He lived on the Siletz reservation, and I never had the chance to have a personal relationship with him. Through the process of this project I have been able to redefine and mend a relationship that felt negative. This book is a collection of my own 35mm photographs, found family pictures and a few physical objects.
